

Your Personal Check-List to teach English in China

Currently you can ONLY teach English in China if you are a Native speaker from one of the following countries: USA, Canada, UK, Ireland, Australia, or New Zealand. We are able to hire from South Africa, but it will depend on your educational background.

If you are at least 22 years old (and not over 58) plus have a Bachelors degree (in anything) this is what you need to do:

- ☐ 1. Current passport (from your country of birth) and it must have at least 6 months remaining and 2 blank pages for visas.
- ☐ 2. Passport size headshot with a white background.
- ☐ 3. Single-page resume (CV) no longer than 1 page.
 - Should contain:
 - ☐ a. Contact Information
 - ☐ b. Address
 - ☐ c. Phone Number
 - ☐ d. Email Address
 - ☐ e. Skype Address
 - ☐ f. List your education (BA or BS is madatory)
 - ☐ g. TEFL or TESOL (120 hours minimum)
 - ☐ h. Any other education past high school.
 - ☐ i. List ONLY the last 3 jobs you have done that include teaching or training skills.

If you have all of the above then proceed to step 4:

- ☐ 4. Your Bachelor Degree (BA or BS) in anything, this will need to be notarized, apostilled, and finally stamped by the Chinese embassy closest to where you live.
- ☐ 5. Your TEFL or TESOL Certification, this will need to be notarized, apostilled, and finally stamped by the Chinese embassy closest to where you live.
- ☐ 6. A criminal background check from your local police, this too needs to be notarized, apostilled, and stamped by the Chinese embassy closest to where you live.

When you have gathered items 4-6, you should plan your first trip to the local Chinese Embassy to get them stamped. (see photo)

- ☐ 7. Complete the Health Check form that the employer sends to you and have that notarized.
